

Women Caring for the Land

Thursday, July 12th | 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM
10064 66th Ave SE | Ashley ND 58413

Please join us for a day of women-centered learning on Thursday, July 12th at Deanna and Cody Sand's ranch. The Sands along with their three children operate a 2,300 acre ranch in Dickey and McIntosh counties. The Sands have learned to utilize pasture rotation to increase their grazing days, and bale grazing throughout the winter. Since adding paddocks and allowing pastures time to rest, they've seen tremendous native grass and forb recovery. The Sands are passionate about family, ranching, and taking care of the land for future generations.
